Courage to be Bold

May 12, 2024

Scripture: Philippians 4:4-7

The apostle Paul calls us to "stand firm, be glad, and don't worry." Easier said than done, isn't it? In these few verses, Paul identifies specific behaviors and practices that can and will help us step beyond worries and live with greater hope, peace and confidence, come what may.

Music Notes

Our worship series, Courageous, concludes this Sunday, May 12, 2024 as we look at having courage to be bold. As a church "this is our calling, our hope, how we see ourselves moving forward." Read More...

Parables 11 am in the social hall

Our theme for May is CONNECTIONS, and this Sunday we'll be weaving the beauty of Mary Magdalene's faithfulness and dedication to Jesus in his time of suffering into a worship honoring of our 6 empathic support animals who are our faithful and dedicated support to us each week at Parables: Lilly, Clarisse, Fergus, Barnaby, Milo and Macduff.
