Call to Worship

Leader: The joy of Easter is for everyone! Whether you are a frequent visitor or just dropping in, you are welcome here. During this season, we are exploring the many ways that Jesus worked for the freedom and liberation of all people.

Today is about the simplest and most powerful kind of freedom: the freedom to love. Love is a gift from God, and today we celebrate that gift as a community.

All: I will take the cup of freedom
and call on the name of God.

Leader: Today we lift up God's promise of a new covenant that is with all who seek it; all are gifted with the Spirit. There is no distinction of identity, age, or background. Each of us is given the freedom to follow Christ's new commandment: to love one another.

All: I will take the cup of freedom
and call on the name of God
